

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

Sheet 1

III. MEMORANDUM ACCOUNTS
FIRE HAZARD PREVENTION MEMORANDUM ACCOUNT (FHPMA)

1. PURPOSE:

The purpose of the FHPMA is to record all costs associated with fire hazard prevention incurred in complying with D.09-08-029 that have not been previously authorized for recovery in SDG&E's General Rate Case (GRC) or other regulatory proceeding. These costs may include: (1) expenses associated with increasing trim clearance of vegetation (interim revisions to General Order (GO) 95); (2) expenses associated with increased maintenance and inspection/patrolling requirements to all electric transmission and distribution utility lines and communication infrastructure providers' (CIP) facilities located on poles owned by SDG&E (changes to GO 165); (3) expenses incurred in design, construction, and maintenance of facilities to mitigate fire hazard in high speed wind areas; and (4) any other expenses incurred in implementing this order.

2. APPLICABILITY:

The FHPMA applies to all customer classes, except for those specifically excluded by the Commission.

3. EFFECTIVE DATE:

This tariff is effective August 20, 2009.

4. RATES:

The FHPMA does not have a separate rate component.

5. ACCOUNTING PROCEDURE:

SDG&E shall maintain the FHPMA by making entries to this account at the end of each month as follows:

- a. A debit entry each month equal to SDG&E's expenses related to increasing the trim clearance of vegetation (interim revisions to GO 95).
- b. A debit entry each month equal to expenses associated with increased maintenance and inspection/patrolling requirements (changes to GO 165).
- c. A debit entry each month equal to expenses incurred to mitigate fire hazard in high speed wind areas.
- d. A debit entry each month for additional costs incurred to comply with this Order.
- e. A credit entry each month equal to amounts allocated to customers through FERC authorized transmission rates.
- f. A credit entry equal to the revenues to recover these costs as authorized by the Commission; and,
